<sup>A</sup> The TRAIL+ and MILE programmes may be taken part time over a maximum of 3 years. MILE courses can also be taken as weekly modules.

<sup>B</sup> In exceptional cases, the tuition fee may be higher.

<sup>C</sup> All MILE and TRAIL+ applicants are considered for financial aid upon request.

<sup>D</sup> Please see the University of Bern's regulations regarding fees and charges, http://www.unibe.ch/studies/organizational\_matters/renewal\_of\_semester\_registration/fees/index\_eng.html

<sup>E</sup> Students have the option of attending single weekly courses in the Winter and Summer Academies, however completing a CAS or DAS is more cost effective. Attendance is mandatory for each chosen course.
