

Global Economic Governance Seminar Series

ECTS: 1.5

KSL Root Number (Fall Series): 448987

KSL Root Number (Spring Series): 454604

This course consists of a number of stand-alone seminars on different aspects of global economic governance. These 2- or 3-hour seminars are taught by leading experts in the field. The purpose of the seminars is to allow students to benefit from the insights and personal experience of the experts invited, and to engage into a discussion with the experts as well as among themselves on the aspects of global economic governance addressed.

Learning outcome:

To gain a better understanding of the complexity of global economic governance.