

Expert Meeting/Workshop 'Cooperative Duties, Human Rights and Climate Change'

8 December 2022

World Trade Institute, University of Bern

Organized by Prof. Elisa Fornalé (University of Bern) and Prof. De Vido Sara (University Cà Foscari)

AGENDA

14.30-14.45:

Welcome Speech: Elisa Fornalé (SNF Professor, World Trade Institute)

Chair of the meeting: Sara De Vido (Associate professor, Ca' Foscari University, Venice)

First Session: Temporal Horizon

Introductory remarks: Time and Human Rights - Professor Kathryn McNeilly, Belfast

Doctrinal Perspectives on Time, Cooperative Duties, and Environment

Prof. Sara De Vido in dubio pro futuris generationibus

Prof. Antonios Tzanakopoulos, Oxford University

Debate

Second Session: Spatial Latitude

Introductory Remarks: Extraterritoriality and international cooperation - Prof. Massimo Starita, Palermo University

UN experts' perspective on Space, Cooperative Duties and Human Rights

Dr Mikiko Otani, Chair of the UN Child Committee

Dr Cecilia Jimenez – Former UN Special Rapporteur on the Human Rights of Internally Displaced Persons

Dr. Laura-Maria Craciunean-Tatu, UN CESCR

Debate

16.15-16.30: Coffee-Break

16:30 – 18:00

Third Session: The Ultimate End

Introductory remarks: UN human rights treaty bodies and climate change, with a focus on the UN Human Rights Committee – Prof. Gentian Zyberi, member of the UN Human Rights Committee

UN experts' perspective on Gender, Science and the Future of International Cooperation

Dr. Reem Alsalem, UN Special Rapporteur on Violence against Women

Dr. Hilary Gbedemah, CEDAW Committee

Dr. Mikel Mancisidor, UN CESCR

Debate

Concluding Remarks

Dr Cristani Federica (Institute of International Relations, Prague)