

WTI, University of Bern
Hallerstrasse 6
CH-3012 Bern, Switzerland

T +41 31 631 36 26
F +41 31 631 36 30
www.wti.org

COMMITTED TO
IMPROVING THE STATE
OF THE WORLD

Is a Multilateral Investment Treaty Needed?

June 19, 2017

Silva Casa Auditorium – World Trade Institute, Bern
*Organized with the support of the World Economic Forum
And the Swiss Network for International Studies (SNIS)*

08:30 - 09:00 Registration

09:00 - 09:10 Welcome and Introduction, Joseph Francois, WTI

SESSION I: The Background - Chair: Manfred Elsig, WTI

09:10 - 09:25 Dan Ciuriak & Ali Dadkhah, Centre for International Governance Innovation (CIGI), Ciuriak Consulting, Canada: "Do investment agreements promote foreign investment?"

09:25 - 09:40 Rodrigo Polanco, Azernoosh Bazrafkan and Valentino Desilvestro, World Trade Institute "Missing Investment Treaties"

09:40 - 09:55 Malebakeng Forere, University of Witwatersrand, South Africa: "Move away from BITs framework: A need for multilateral investment treaty?"

09:55 - 10:10 Robert Basedow, European University Institute, Italy: "Re-evaluating the failed MAI negotiations - What policy recommendations can we draw from past attempts to establish a multilateral framework for investment?"

10:10 - 10:40 Discussion introduced by Chair

10:40 - 11:10 Coffee

SESSION II: The EU Proposal - Chair: Georgios Petrochilos, Partner, Three Crowns, Paris

11:10 - 11:25 Colin Brown & Maria Luisa Andrisani, DG Trade, European Commission: "The Rationale for and possible design features for a Multilateral Investment Court"

11:25 - 11:40 José Manuel Álvarez, Universidad Externado, Colombia: "The European (Multilateral) Investment Court: 100 years' setback on dispute resolution"

11:40 - 11:55 Anna De Luca, Università Bocconi: "Of True problems and fake myths: Is the Multilateral Investment Court a panacea?"

11:55 - 12:10 Elsa Sardinha, National University of Singapore (NUS), Singapore: "Multilateralising the Investment Tribunal System in CETA & the EU-Vietnam FTA: Form, Content and Challenges to this (Imperfect?) Response to Legitimacy Concerns in Investor-State Arbitration"

12:10 - 12:30 Discussion introduced by Chair

12:30 - 13:30 Lunch

SESSION III: The Relationship with Existing Treaties, Chair: Krista Nadakavukaren Schefer, Universität Basel

13:30 - 13:45: Iryna de Meyer, Energy Charter Secretariat: “The ECT - An existing multilateral investment agreement”.

13:45 - 14:00: N. Jansen Calamita, National University of Singapore (NUS), Singapore: “A Multilateral Investment Court – What Future for ICSID?”

14:00 - 14:15: Martin Björklund, The Erik Castrén Institute, University of Helsinki, Finland: “A Cuckoo in the nest? Potential Effects of Bargaining in the Converging “Shadows of the Law” of both a Multilateral Investment Regime and WTO Dispute Settlement?”

14:15 - 14:30 Markus Wagner, University of Warwick, United Kingdom: “What Lessons in Cross-Fertilization between International Trade and Investment Law for a Multilateral Investment Treaty?”

14:30 - 15:00 Discussion introduced by Chair

15:00 - 15:30 Coffee

SESSION IV: Future Steps - Chair: Nikos Lavranos, European Federation for Investment Law and Arbitration (EFILA)

15:30 - 15:45 Facundo Calvo, IELPO LL.M., University of Barcelona, “The Shortest Way Towards a Multilateral Investment Treaty”

15:45 - 16:00 Lise Johnson, Columbia Center on Sustainable Investment, United States: “Framework for Future International Investment Agreements (IIAs): Principles and approaches for aligning IIAs with sustainable development”

16:00 - 16:15 Junqing Chao, University of Hong Kong: “China’s Proposal of Multilateral Investment Treaty: A Long Road Ahead”

16:15 – 16:30 Axel Berger & Wan-Hsin Liu, German Development Institute (DIE) & Kiel Institute for the World Economy (IfW), Germany: “Can the G20 Serve as a Launchpad for a Multilateral Agreement on Investment?”

16:30 - 17:00 Discussion introduced by Chair

17:00 - 18:00 Closing Policy Roundtable. Chair: Ana Novik, Head of the Investment Division, Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development (OECD). Speakers: Pierre Sauvé (World Bank), Cristián Rodríguez Chiffelle, (World Economic Forum), Ricardo Meléndez Ortíz (ICTSD).

18:00 - 19:00 Farewell Drinks

u^b

UNIVERSITÄT
BERN

