Course Description

This first part of a two weeks' course on international trade remedies is comprised of lectures and studies that cover the disciplines on anti-dumping and safeguard measures in the WTO legal system. The course covers both substantive and procedural aspects from a practical perspective, taking into account the interest of the main stakeholders usually involved in these matters, e.g. the authorities of the country applying these regulations, domestic producers, exporters, importers, industrial consumers and the government of the affected exporters. This course is relevant for individuals working in government, industry, law practice, NGOs, and academia who have an interest in trade remedy issues.

Lecturers

Edwin Vermulst

Edwin Vermulst has practiced international trade and EU law and policy since 1987 and is a founding partner of VVGB Advocaten. He is a member of the Brussels bar A-list. Mr. Vermulst graduated from the University of Utrecht in 1983 and received LL.M and SJD degrees from the University of Michigan Law School in 1984 and 1986.

Mr. Vermulst specializes in the representation of multinationals, governments, trade associations, exporters and importers in EU and WTO trade remedies and customs proceedings and has been involved in more than 150 cases. He is, among others, the trade counsel of the World Federation of Sporting Goods Industry [WFSGI].

Mr. Vermulst was a WTO Panellist in Mexico – HFCS and has been involved in various WTO dispute settlement proceedings as a member of the delegation, most recently in China – Anti-Dumping and Countervailing Duty Measures on Wine, Ukraine – Ammonium nitrate and EU – Biodiesel (Indonesia). He has co-authored nine books, including landmark comparative analyses of the anti-dumping systems of Australia, Canada, the EU and the US with Professor John Jackson in 1989 and of rules of origin in 1994, and numerous articles. The second edition of his book on EU Anti-Dumping Law and Practice was published in October 2010 by Sweet & Maxwell. His book on the WTO Anti-Dumping Agreement was published in 2006 by Oxford University Press.

Mr. Vermulst is the Editor-in-Chief of the Journal of World Trade. He is a member of the Faculty of the World Trade Institute in Bern and of the EPLO program in Athens and a member of the Advisory Board of ECIPE, the European Centre for International Political Economy. Mr. Vermulst is invariably selected as a top trade practitioner by the leading legal directories such as Legal500, Who's Who Legal and Chambers. Chambers Global 2022, for example, ranked him as a Star individual. Who's Who Legal Trade and Customs nominated him as the trade lawyer of the year for eight years.

Fernando Piérola

Since 2002, Fernando Piérola represents governments in WTO disputes, before panels, the Appellate Body, arbitrators and in the context of other dispute resolution means. He is Senior Counsel at the Advisory Centre on WTO Law (ACWL) in Geneva, Switzerland. He is also an arbitrator in investor-state disputes (ICSID) and in disputes under regional trade agreements. He was a trade remedy investigating authority in Peru, and conducted anti-dumping, countervailing duty and safeguard investigations. He has published two books on WTO safeguards ('WTO Agreement on Safeguards and Article XIX of GATT. A Detailed Commentary', Cambridge University Press (2022); 'The Challenge of Safeguards in the WTO', Cambridge University Press (2014), 2015 Inter-American Bar Association Best Book Award) and two books on WTO dispute settlement in Spanish. He holds a doctoral degree in economic law conferred by the University of Bern; a Master's degree in Business Administration from the University of Geneva; a Master's degree in International Law and Economics (MILE) from the World Trade Institute, and his law degree from the Catholic University of Peru. For domestic law, he is a qualified attorney in Peru.

Learning Objectives

- Students should understand the role of anti-dumping and safeguard measures in international trade regulation.
- Students should be able to identify the key similarities and differences between AD and safeguards, both in terms of their objectives and practical application.
- Students should obtain a sense of how anti-dumping and safeguard investigations are conducted.
- Students should understand the basics of dumping margin calculations and of how determinations of material/serious injury are made.

Assessment

- Students' knowledge will be assessed on the basis of an open book, take home exam which needs to be completed on an individual basis. The exam will consist of essay questions.
- Take home assignment made available on Friday, 3 February 2023, 16:00 and to be submitted latest at 16:00 on 4 February 2023 to masters@wti.org.
- One question from Edwin Vermulst, carries 50% weight in the final course grade
- One question from Fernando Pierola, carries 50% weight in the final course grade
