

Junior Postdoc in Gender Studies/Human Rights

The World Trade Institute is a leading academic institution dedicated to graduate-level education and research on international trade regulation and investment. As a centre for excellence of the University of Bern, it explores the interconnections between the fields of law, economics and political science at the global level. For more information: www.wti.org.

We are looking for enthusiastic and motivated junior postdoc to join our SNSF Funded Research Project: "Gender Equality in the Mirror (GEM): Clothing the Invisibility of Women's Participation at International Level."

The candidate needs to have a strong background and experience in gender studies, particularly in human rights law/international law/or sociology or political science, and show outstanding commitment to multidisciplinary research. The candidates must have already obtained a doctorate (PhD), no more than 2 years ago. Proficient oral and written English skills are expected.

The position is funded for a period of 1-year, 80% (from January/February 2023).

Application

Application should include:

- cover letter;
- detailed curriculum vitae,
- list of publications,
- 1 peer-reviewed publication;
- contact details of three referees.

The documents should be combined into ONE pdf file.

The deadline for applications is October, 24 (midnight CET) and the interviews will take place the first week of November.

Submit your application to francesco.defino@wti.org, in cc elisa.fornale@wti.org, with the subject line: Junior Postdoc – GEM.

For more information, please contact Mr De Fino Francesco (francesco.defino@wti.org).