Course Description

This course consists of a number of stand-alone seminars on different aspects of global economic governance. These 1,5- or 2-hour seminars are taught by leading experts in the field. The purpose of the seminars is to allow students to benefit from the insights and personal experiences of the experts invited.

Learning Objectives

To critically comment on an expert presentation regarding a topic related to global economic governance.

Exams and Grades

The final grade will be based on a 2000/2500-word essay critically commenting on one of the expert presentations given in the context of the Global Economic Governance Seminar Series. Only students who have attended at least 80% of the seminar lectures in a given semester may submit such essay for grading.

Essays must be submitted to masters@wti.org by 11h59 (CET) on Monday 24 June, 2024, following the style and structure standards established in the Rules and Guidelines for the Master's Thesis for WTI Graduate Studies.
