

Agricultural Trade Rules in the Era of "Post Trade Liberalization" --- Framework of Trade Rules and its Impact Assessments

Edited by Masanori HAYASHI and Masahiko GEMMA
(Published by Nourintoukei Publishing Co. Ltd. In December 2015)

Table of Contents

Part I Framework of Agricultural Trade Rules

by M. Hayashi (Senior Researcher, Organization for Regional and Inter-regional Studies (ORIS), Waseda University)

Chapter 1 Introduction

Chapter 2 A History of Trade Rules --- From Geneva Economic Conference (1927) to GATT Tokyo Round (1973-79)

Chapter 3 GATT Uruguay Round (1986-94) and the WTO Trade Rules

Chapter 4 Evolution and Implementation of Trade Rules after the Uruguay Round

- 1) WTO Doha Round --- From preparatory process to a quagmire
- 2) Functioning of the WTO System --- Agriculture, SPS, TBT Committees and Dispute Settlement System
- 3) Regional Trade Agreements and Their 'WTO-Plus' Stipulations

Chapter 5 Conclusion --- Agricultural Trade Rules and Agricultural Policies under the Paradigm Shift from 'Trade Liberalization' to 'Post Trade Liberalization'

Part II Issues on the Framework of Agricultural Trade Rules

Chapter 1 Developing New Rules for Agricultural Trade --- A U.S. Perspective Doha Round failure, U.S.-EU Free Trade Agreement, and the Need for Multilateral Negotiations

by James Grueff (Decision Leaders)

Chapter 2 A Transatlantic Trade and Investment Partnership Agreement --- Implications for Swiss Agriculture
by Christian Häberli (Senior Research Fellow, World Trade Institute)

Chapter 3 International Rules and Domestic Regulation concerning Protection of Geographical Indications --- Domestic Implementation Issues of WTO TRIPS Agreement and Regional Trade Agreements' TRIPS Stipulations by Yoshihisa Naito (Director, Policy Research Institute, Ministry of Agriculture, Forestry and Fisheries (MAFF))

Chapter 4 Another 'Trade Liberalization' --- 'Free and Open Trade' of APEC
by Takumi Sakuyama (Associate Professor, Meiji University)

Chapter 5 For the Future of Japanese Agriculture and Food Industry --- From 'Centralized Main Frame System' to 'De-centralized Network System'
by Toshihiko Takemoto (Food and Agricultural Policy Analyst)

Part III Transformation of Agricultural Trade Rules and Its Impact Assessments

Chapter 1 Evolution and Issues of Impact Assessments on the Results of 'Trade Liberalization' --- Limits and Possibilities of Impact Assessments
by Masahiko Gemma (Professor, Waseda University)

Addendum Japan and Thai Consumers' Purchasing Behaviors of Rice --- From the Results of Experiments on Consumers' Willingness to Pay
by Masanori Hayashi (Senior Researcher, ORIS, Waseda University)

Chapter 2 Case Study of FTA Impact Assessment --- Australia-US FTA
by Tetsuya Tamai (Senior Researcher, Policy Research Institute, MAFF)

Chapter 3 Case Study of FTA Impact Assessment --- Korea-US FTA
by Han Boo Dong (Professor, Korea University)

Chapter 4 Analysis of Agricultural Policies Using PSE/CSE --- From its Inception to AMS and Application to Developing Countries' Agricultural Policies
by Kunio Tsubota (Professor, Meiji university)