

Multistakeholder Internet Governance

Models, Mechanisms and Issues

Aaron Shull

Counsel and Corporate Secretary at CIGI

E-Mail: ashull@cigionline.org

Profile

A practicing lawyer and expert in Internet governance, Aaron Shull joined CIGI as counsel and corporate secretary in August 2013. In addition to advising on legal matters, his current research focusses on cyber security and the evolution of global copyright law in the digital age.

Adam Peake

Senior Researcher at GLOCOM

E-Mail: ajp@glocom.ac.jp

Profile

Adam Peake was an early member of the non-commercial users constituency, a founding member of the .ORG Advisory Council (to May 2006), and a member of the NAIS Project that in 2000-2001 contributed to the review of the At-Large elections and public representation and participation in ICANN. Mr Peake is currently a senior researcher at the Center for Global Communications (GLOCOM), International University of Japan, where he works on telecommunications, Internet and broadband policy, performs follow-up activities for the World Summit on the Information Society (WSIS) and teaches a short course on Internet policy for MBA students. He has been involved in Internet policy-making activities since the mid-1990s.

Alex Gakuru

Chairman of the ICT Consumer's Association of Kenya

E-Mail: gakuru@gmail.com

Profile

Alex Gakuru is the elected African representative for the Non-Commercial Users' Constituency's Executive Committee. He is currently serving his second term, to which he was elected in 2009. He is heavily involved in ICANN, but also works as a Board Member for the Communications Commission of Kenya, and is the Chairman of the ICT Consumer's Association of Kenya.

Alexandrine Pirlot de Corbion

Advocacy Officer at Privacy International

E-Mail: alex@privacyinternational.org

Twitter handle: @alexandrinedec

PI: @privacyint

Profile

Alexandrine is an Advocacy Officer at Privacy International working across the organization and the PI network on privacy related issues with a particular focus on communications surveillance with the aim of engaging in advocacy activities at the national, region and international level and carrying out related thematic research. Additionally, she coordinates PI's network of 29 organizations and experts in 20 countries across Africa, Asia and Latin America with responsibilities including grant management and reporting to donors.

Andrea Glorioso

Policy Officer in the European Commission

E-Mail: andrea.glorioso@ec.europa.eu

Profile

Andrea Glorioso (Mr) joined the European Commission in 2007 and is currently a policy officer in the Directorate-General for Communication Networks, Content and Technology (CONNECT). He works in the "International Relations" unit, focusing specifically on global Internet governance. Mr

Glorioso also worked on cyber-security, human rights, ICT export control policies and future Internet research activities. He was the assistant of the "EU Digital Sherpa" for the 2011 G8 Summit and has been closely involved in ICANN, the Internet Governance Forum, the European Dialogue on Internet Governance (EuroDIG), the London Cyberspace process and other Internet-related events and discussions at regional and global levels.

Ang Peng Hwa

Director of the Singapore Internet Research Centre

E-Mail: tphang@ntu.edu.sg

Profile

Ang Peng Hwa is Director of the Singapore Internet Research Centre at the Wee Kim Wee School of Communication and Information, Nanyang Technological University, Singapore. His research interests lie in media law and policy and he has consulted on the subject for the governments of Singapore, Thailand and Bhutan.

Anriette Esterhuysen

Executive Director of the Association for Progressive Communications (APC)

E-Mail: anriette@apc.org

Profile

Anriette Esterhuysen is the executive director of the Association for Progressive Communications (APC), an international network of organizations working with Information and Communications Technologies (ICT) to support social justice and development. Prior to joining APC she worked for human rights organisations in South Africa, and as the executive director of South African APC member SANGONeT, an Internet service provider and training institution for civil society, labour and community organizations. She is currently a member of the Multistakeholder Advisory Group of the Internet Governance Forum and serves on the boards of the Kenya-based Global e-Schools and Communities Initiative. She was inducted into the Internet Hall of Fame in 2013. Esterhuysen has published extensively on ICTs for development and social justice.

Avri Doria

Policy & Governance Advisor with dotgay LLC

E-Mail: avri@acm.org

Profile

Avri Doria is a contractual researcher. Since June 2012 she has been a Policy & Governance Advisor with dotgay LLC. She has been involved with ICANN and GNSO since 2005. In 2005 she was elected to the GNSO council to represent the NCSG. In 2013 she served as a member of the ATRT. She has previously served as the chair of the GNSO Council as a Nomcom appointee to the Council and the NCSG Executive Committee. She received her BA in Philosophy from the University of Rhode Island in 1978. In 1979 she completed her MA in Philosophy with a Concentration on Cognitive Studies from University of Chicago. In 2001 she received an MA in Counseling Psychology from Rhode Island College.

Bertrand de La Chapelle

Director of the Internet & Jurisdiction Project

E-Mail: bdelachapelle@gmail.com

Profile

Bertrand de La Chapelle is the Director of the Internet & Jurisdiction Project, a global multi-stakeholder dialogue process launched in early 2012 to address the tension between the cross-border nature of the Internet and the diversity of national jurisdictions. (More info at: www.internetjurisdiction.net)

He was a Director on the ICANN Board between 2010 and 2013. Between 2006 and 2010, as Thematic Ambassador and Special Envoy for the Information Society, he represented France in all WSIS follow-up activities and Internet governance processes, including in particular the Internet Governance Forum (IGF), and was a Vice-Chair of ICANN's Governmental Advisory Committee (GAC). Between 2002 and 2005, he actively participated in the World Summit on the Information Society (WSIS) to promote dialogue among civil society, private sector and governments, including as Director of the collaborative platform WSIS-online. He has actively promoted multi-stakeholder governance processes for more than 12 years.

An engineer, diplomat and civil society actor, he also has nine years of private sector experience, including between 1993 and 1998 as co-founder and President of Virtools, a company that produced the first development environment for interactive 3D content, acquired in 2005 by leading CAD vendor Dassault Systèmes.

Bertrand de La Chapelle is a graduate of Ecole Polytechnique (1978), Sciences Po Paris (1983) and Ecole Nationale d'Administration (1986).

Carlos Alberto Afonso

Executive Director of NUPEF

E-Mail: ca@cafonso.ca

Profile

Carlos Afonso is currently is Executive Director of the Nupef Institute (www.nupez.org.br), a research, policy advocacy and learning center focused on leveraging ICTs for sustainable human development. He studied naval engineering at the Polytechnical School of the University of São Paulo, Brazil. Master in Economics, York University, Toronto, Canada, with doctoral studies in Social and Political Thought at the same university. Afonso co-founded the Association for Progressive Communications in 1990. He proposed and coordinated the Eco '92 Internet project in Rio de Janeiro in association with APC and the UN. Mr. Afonso is also board member of Telebras (Brazil's state company in charge of the National Broadband Plan) — 2010-2012. He is currently chair of the Brazilian chapter of the Internet Society.

Carolina Rossini

Project Director, Latin American Resource Center

E-Mail: carolina.rossini@gmail.com

Profile

Carolina has more than 13 years of experience in on internet governance, human rights, telecom regulation and intellectual property law and policy. She recently joined Public Knowledge, as the Director for International Rights and Affairs. She is a member of the Research Advisory Network Global Commission on Internet Governance and an international associate at Global Partners Digital. She is an advisory board member of both Open Knowledge Foundation Central and of the Brazil Chapter, and of Saylor Foundation in the US. Previously Carolina was a Project Director at New America Foundation's Open Technology Institute, the International Intellectual Property Director at Electronic Frontiers Foundation (EFF), a fellow at the Berkman Center at Harvard University, and has consulted for organisations like Wikimedia Foundation, Freedom House, UNESCO, USAID, UNDP and more. She is a Brazilian lawyer and before moving to the US about 7 years ago, she worked at the Center for Technology and Society at FGV-Rio and as a transactions attorney for Telefonica's ISP in Brazil, Terra. She has an LL.M. on IP from Boston University (US), an MBA from Instituto de Empresas (Spain), an MA in International Economic Negotiations from UNICAMP/UNESP (Brazil), and a JD from USP (Brazil).

Dr. Daniel Oppermann

Researcher at Núcleo de Pesquisas em Relações Internacionais, University of São Paulo (NUPRI-USP)

E-Mail: dan.oppermann@gmail.com

<http://www.usp.br/nupri>

<http://www.comunicacaoepolitica.com.br>

Profile

Daniel Oppermann studied Political Science at the Free University of Berlin (FUB) and holds a PhD in International Relations from the University of Brasília (UnB). From 2008 to 2012 he was a researcher at Observatório Político Sul-Americano (OPSA) at the University of Rio de Janeiro (UERJ). Currently he works as the CEO of an IT-company in São Paulo and is associated as a researcher at Núcleo de Pesquisas em Relações Internacionais, University of São Paulo (NUPRI-USP).

Danilo Doneda

General Coordinator at the Department of Consumer Protection and Defense in the Ministry of Justice

E-Mail: ddoneda@gmail.com

Profile

Danilo Doneda is General Coordinator at the Department of Consumer Protection and Defense in the Ministry of Justice (Brazil), where he develops actions regarding public policies for consumer protection in areas such as the protection of personal data and e-commerce. His academic activities comprehend a PhD in Civil Law at the State University of Rio de Janeiro, a Master's degree at the same University and a Law degree at the Federal University of Paraná. Currently, he is professor of Contract Law at the Law School of FGV Direito Rio and develops research activity at the Center for Technology and Society (CTS) at FGV Direito Rio.

Desiree Miloshevic

Profile

Desiree Miloshevic is an Internet public servant and Senior Public Policy and International Affairs Advisor in Europe for Afiliás, global provider of internet infrastructure and registry services. Ms Miloshevic served as Special Advisor to the Chair of the United Nations' Internet Governance Forum Multistakeholder Advisory Group from 2006 to 2009. More recently she participated in the ITU's WCIT-12 as part of the UK government delegation on behalf of the Oxford Internet Institute, University of Oxford, where she was a Visiting Associate from 2008-2009 and 2011-2012 and joined the UK Multistakeholder Advisory Group on Internet governance, MAGIG in 2013. Ms Miloshevic's work in the Internet field began in 1993 as a hostmaster for Demon Internet, the United Kingdom's first Internet service provider to offer access to individuals. She participated in the informal, peer-coordinated policy making process for the .UK domain until supervision of the ccTLD was assumed by Nominet in 1996. In subsequent years she has worked as DNS technical and policy consultant for many public institutions including BBC R&D and the Getty Museum in relation to archive and domain use. She studied English Literature at the Faculty of Philology, University of Belgrade. She has lived in London since 1991.

Diego Canabarro

Researcher for the Center for International Studies on Government

E-Mail: diegocanabarro@gmail.com

Profile

I'm a legal counselor specialized in Public International Law and with a master degree in International Relations. Currently, I'm a Political Science PhD Student at Federal University of Rio Grande do Sul and work as a researcher for the Center for International Studies on Government (CEGOV/UFRGS). I work for the Brazilian Government on projects related to e-Government interoperability and benchmarking, ITCs Management from a legal perspective and the use of Internet to the delivery of e-Services to citizens. Together with two other consultants hired by the Interamerican Development Bank (IBD), I've been working in the reform of the Brazilian institutional and legal framework related to e-Government so that the country can adopt an interoperability platform to integrate e-Services in the Federal level.

Eduardo Magrani

Researcher and Professor at the Center for
Technology and Society

E-Mail: eduardo.magrani@fgv.br

Profile

Researcher at the Center for Technology and Society (CTS/FGV). Project leader on e-democracy and brazilian coordinator of the newsletter “Digital Rights: Latin America and the Caribbean”. Professor of Intellectual Property at FGV Law School. Legal Leader of Creative Commons Brasil. Master Degree in Constitutional Law at Pontifical Catholic University of Rio de Janeiro (PUC-Rio) focused on political participation through the Internet (Work title: “the networked public sphere: the internet as a tool for political and democratic participation). Graduated in Law at Pontifical Catholic University of Rio de Janeiro (PUC-Rio) with academic exchange experience at University of Coimbra – Portugal, and Université Stendhal (Grenoble III) France.

Fen Osler Hampson

Director of the Global Security & Politics Program

E-Mail: fhampson@cigionline.org

Profile

Fen Hampson is a distinguished fellow and director of the global security & politics program, overseeing the research direction of the program and related activities. Previously, he served as director of the Norman Paterson School of International Affairs and will continue to serve as chancellor’s professor at Carleton University. He is the recipient of various awards and honors and is a frequent contributor to the national and international media.

Fernando Perini

Senior Program Officer Information and Networks

E-Mail: fperini@idrc.ca

Profile

Fernando Perini is an expert on information and communication technologies (ICTs) in Latin America and the Caribbean. His work focuses on how information networks affect citizens in developing countries – particularly in the areas of creative industries like music and film, as well as governance, learning, and science. This also includes policy-oriented research on how rights such as intellectual property, freedom of expression and privacy are changing because of digital technologies. Perini is trained in innovation management, and his research focus has been the interaction between multinational corporations and national innovation systems in developing countries. Before joining IDRC in 2007, he taught management at the University of Sussex (England) in its Science and Technology Policy Research Unit. He also has been a consultant, advising technology companies on how to use innovative technologies to improve their management processes. Perini holds a PhD from the University of Sussex in the management of technology and innovation.”

Francisco Brito Cruz

The coordinator of the Internet, Law & Society Nucleus

E-Mail: fbritocruz@gmail.com

Twitter handle: @fbritocruz

Profile

Francisco Carvalho de Brito Cruz is a master's degree candidate in Jurisprudence and Philosophy of Law and the coordinator of the Internet, Law & Society Nucleus at the University of São Paulo Law School. He is a member of Brazil's Empirical Legal Research Network (REED) and winner of the "Brazil's Internet Framework Bill & Development Award" (sponsored by Fundação Getulio Vargas Law School and Google). His research project is a case study about the Brazilian experience to elaborate a draft bill on Internet regulation and user's rights entirely through an online social media platform. He is also concerned about privacy and freedom of expression in the digital age and Internet governance.

Ivar Hartmann

Professor and Researcher at the Center for Justice and Society

E-Mail: ivarhartmann@gmail.com

Profile

Ivar Hartmann is a professor at FGV Law School in Rio de Janeiro, where he teaches Law & Technology and Programming for Lawyers. He is also head of the Supreme Court in Numbers project, which performs empirical research employing data mining and natural language processing on a database of over 1.5 million Brazilian Supreme Court cases. Ivar holds a masters in Constitutional Law from the Catholic University of Porto Alegre (PUCRS) and an LL.M. from Harvard Law School. He is a PhD candidate at the State University of Rio de Janeiro and an alumni of the Diplo Internet Governance course and the European Summer School of Internet Governance.

Izumi Aizu

Deputy Director at the Institute for HyperNetwork Society

E-Mail: izumiaizu@gmail.com

Profile

Izumi Aizu is the Deputy Director at the Institute for HyperNetwork Society, and also a Senior Research Fellow & Professor at the Institute for InfoSocinomics, Tama University. He was a member of ICANN's At-Large Advisory Committee as well as Membership Advisory Committee (1998-99). He is also member of Multistakeholder Advisory Group (MAG) of Internet Governance Forum (IGF).

Jeanette Hofmann

Director, HIIG

E-Mail: jeanette@wzb.eu

Profile

Jeanette Hofmann is a political scientist with a focus on Internet governance. She heads a research group on internet policy at the Berlin Social Science Center, she is co-director of the Humboldt Institute for Internet and Society and professor for Internet policy at the Berlin University of the Arts. Current research interests include multi-stakeholder processes and the role of technical, legal and social norms in Internet regulation. In addition to her academic work, Jeanette has been involved in various multi-stakeholder processes such as the UN World Summit on the Information Society, the Internet Governance Forum and, as an expert member, the committee of inquiry of the German Parliament "Internet and Digital Society".

Jeremy Malcolm

Project manager for Consumers International

E-Mail: Jeremy@Malcolm.id.au / jmalcolm@eff.org

Twitter handle: @qirtaiba

Profile

Jeremy Malcolm is Senior Global Policy Analyst on intellectual property at Electronic Frontier Foundation.

Prior to that he worked for Consumers International coordinating its global programme Consumers in the Digital Age. Jeremy graduated with degrees in Law (with Honours) and Commerce in 1995 from Murdoch University, and completed his PhD thesis at the same University in 2008 on the topic of Internet governance. Jeremy's background is as an information technology and intellectual property lawyer and IT consultant. He is admitted to the bars of the Supreme Court of Western Australia (1995), High Court of Australia (1996) and Appellate Division of New York (2009). He is a former co-coordinator of the Civil Society Internet Governance Caucus and currently a Steering Committee member of the OECD Civil Society Information Society Advisory Council.

Joana Varon

Researcher and project coordinator at the Centre for Technology and Society

E-Mail: joana.varon@fgv.br

Twitter handle: @joana_varon

Profile

Joana Varon Ferraz is a researcher and project coordinator at the Centre for Technology and Society from Fundação Getulio Vargas in Rio de Janeiro. She works on applied research on information and communication technology for development, focused on the legal institutional debates about internet governance in order to ensure protection of fundamental human rights. As such, she is deeply engaged in different civil society networks, being part of the interim steering committee of BesBits, network of civil society organizations focused on the Global South; of the steering committee of 1net, a multistakeholder network and also part of the advisory council of the WebWeWant campaign.

Jovan Kurbalija

Founding director of DiploFoundation

E-Mail: jovank@diplomacy.edu

Twitter handle: @jovankurbalija

Profile

Dr Jovan Kurbalija is the founding director of DiploFoundation and visiting professor at the College of Europe (Bruges). A former diplomat with a professional and academic background in international law, diplomacy, and information technology, Dr Kurbalija's main areas of research are the impact of the Internet on diplomacy, the development of the Internet governance regime, diplomatic law (the impact of the Internet on privileges and immunities), online negotiations, and e-participation. He is the author of An Introduction to Internet Governance, which has been translated into nine languages and will soon publish in its 6th edition.

Lee Hibbard

Coordinator of the Media and Information Society Division of the Council of Europe

E-Mail: lee.hibbard@coe.int

Profile

Lee Hibbard works in the Media and Information Society Division of the Council of Europe, based in Strasbourg. For the last three years, he has been coordinating Council of Europe work in various international forums dealing with information society and internet governance related issues. More recently, he has been active in the work of the Pan-European Dialogue on Internet Governance (EuroDIG). At the substantive level, he has been heavily involved in the conception and development of several pan-European policy documents concerning empowerment of children online, the public service value of the Internet, protecting the dignity, security and privacy of children on the internet, freedom of expression and internet filters, and also human rights guidelines for ISPS and online games providers.

Leyla Keser

Founding director of Istanbul Bilgi University's IT Law
Research Center

E-Mail: leyla.keser@gmail.com

Twitter handle: @leyla.keser

Profile

Leyla Keser Berber is the founder and director of Istanbul Bilgi University's IT Law Research Center. She earned her Phd in 1998 at Marmara University. She has authored books, articles and reports on computer forensics, e-government, e-Identity, e-commerce, information security, biometric methods, DRM, ICT law, e-health records, data protection/privacy, and cybersecurity. She is the author of Cyber Law Turkey (for Kluwer Law International, 2009) and a member of the International Association of IT Lawyers. She is Chairman of the e-Signature National Coordination Board of the Turkish Information, Communication and Telecommunication Authority (ICTA), Chairman of the Subcommittee on Secondary Legislation for the New Turkish Commercial Code on Digital Companies, a member of the Internet Improvement Board at the Ministry of Transport, Maritime Affairs and Communication, a legal advisor to the Ministry of Customs and Trade on IT law and to the Ministry of Health on e-Identity law.

Luiz Moncau

Researcher and Vice-coordinator of the Center for Technology and Society

E-Mail: luiz.moncau@fgv.br

Profile

Luiz Fernando Marrey Moncau is researcher and vice-coordinator at the Center for Technology and Society (CTS) from the law school of the Getulio Vargas Foundation in Rio de Janeiro (FGV DIREITO RIO). Luiz graduated in Law at the Pontifícia Universidade Católica de São Paulo (PUC-SP) and have a master's degree in Constitutional Law at Pontifícia Universidade Católica of Rio de Janeiro (PUC-Rio). Luiz has worked as a Lawyer/Policy Analyst in the Advocacy Department of the Brazilian Institute for Consumer Defense (Instituto Brasileiro de Defesa do Consumidor - Idec), as a consultant for the Ministry of Justice on telecommunications and consumers rights and as coordinator of the Education and Legal departments at the Procon Carioca (the Rio de Janeiro City Hall branch for consumer protection).

Mariana Valente

Researcher and Professor at the Center for Technology and Society

E-Mail: mariana.valente@fgv.br

Profile

Mariana Valente is a researcher at CTS/FGV, co-coordinator of the Open Business Models project. Legal Leader of the Creative Commons Brazil. Mariana holds a master degree in Sociology of Law from the University of São Paulo (USP). She is also Researcher at the Law and Democracy Nucleous (NDD) at CEBRAP (Brazilian Center for Analysis and Planning), where she worked on studies for the Brazilian Ministry of Justice research program, including the report Intellectual Property and Traditional Knowledge in Brazil. Mariana holds a specialization in Intellectual Property from the WIPO Academy (Summer School 2011). Was legal coordinator of the Museum of Modern Art of São Paulo, and coordinates the Copyrights nucleous of the Workgroup for Museums Archives (CAPES).

Marília Maciel

Researcher and Coordinator of the Center for
Technology and Society

E-Mail: marilia.maciel@fgv.br

Twitter handle: @MariliaM

Profile

Ms Marilia Maciel is a researcher and coordinator of the Center for Technology and Society of the Getulio Vargas Foundation (CTS/FGV) in Rio de Janeiro. She is also a lecturer and tutor in courses offered by DiploFoundation. She serves as a Member of ICANN Non-commercial Users Constituency (NCUC) and representative of NCUC in NCSG Policy Committee. Marilia is a former member of the Working Group on IGF improvements (2011-2012), created under the auspices of the Commission on Science and Technology for Development (UN CSTD). She is a member of the Advisory Committee of PoliTICs Magazine. Currently she is a member of the Advisory Board on Internet security, created under the Brazilian Internet Steering Committee. Marilia is a PhD candidate on International Relations at the Pontifical Catholic University (PUC - Rio de Janeiro) developing a thesis on Internet Governance, cyber security and defense. She holds a Master's degree in Latin American Integration from the Federal University of Santa Maria, and an Undergraduate in Law from the Federal University of Pernambuco.

Mayte Peters

Project Manager: Network of Internet &
Society Research Centers

E-Mail: mayte.peters@hiig.de

Twitter handle: @maytepeters

Profile

Dr. Mayte Peters is the coordinator of the global Network of Internet & Society Research Centers (NoC), and based at the Alexander von Humboldt Institute for Internet and Society in Berlin. She holds a doctorate in international relations from the University of St. Gallen, Switzerland, where she also studied. Mayte is also co-chair of Publixphere e.V., the non-profit association running the non-partisan and independent political information and discussion platform Publixphere.de, which she initiated in 2011.

Milton Mueller

Professor at the Syracuse University School of Information Studies

E-Mail: mueller@syr.edu

Twitter handle: @miltonmueller

Profile

Milton L. Mueller is Professor at the Syracuse University School of Information Studies. His research and teaching explore the political economy of communication and information. For the past 15 years his research, teaching and public service have concentrated on problems related to global Internet governance. His books Networks and States: The global politics of Internet governance (MIT Press, 2010) and Ruling the Root: Internet Governance and the Taming of Cyberspace (MIT Press, 2002) are acclaimed scholarly accounts of the global governance regime emerging around the Internet. His complete list of publications can be found here. His commentary and analysis of current events can be found on the Internet Governance Project blog.

Mira Burri

Lecturer at the University of Bern

E-Mail: mira.burri@wti.org

Profile

Mira Burri is a senior fellow at the World Trade Institute and a lecturer in law at the University of Bern. Her research focuses on the interaction between digital technologies and governance, in particular in the fields of trade, cultural and media policies. She has most recently co-edited Trade Governance in the Digital Age (Cambridge University Press, 2012). In December 2013, she co-organized the conference 'The Institutionalization of Global Internet Governance: Multilateralism, Multistakeholderism, and Beyond'.

Mira's publications are available here: <http://ssrn.com/author=483457>

Monica Guise Rosina

Research Group on Law and Innovation, Getulio Vargas Foundation Law School, São Paulo

E-Mail: monica.rosina@fgv.br

Profile

Mônica Steffen Guise Rosina is a Professor of Law at Fundação Getulio Vargas Law School in São Paulo (DIREITO GV), where she coordinates the Research Group on Law and Innovation and teaches Intellectual Property, International Law, Digital Democracy and Legal Research. Mônica holds a PhD in International and Comparative Law from the University of São Paulo (USP) and an LLM from the Federal University of Santa Catarina (UFSC). Mônica is also a visiting Professor at the Brazilian Bar Association's School for Advanced Legal Studies.

Olga Cavalli

Professor at the University of Buenos Aires

E-Mail: olgacavalli@gmail.com

Profile

Dr. Olga Cavalli is a widely known professional for her work in Argentina, America and Europe. She is an electrical and electronics engineer by profession and has vast experience in telecommunication, project management, market research, competitive analysis, public policy and regulations. She holds a multitude of positions in the world of ICT, including high-level work with ICANN, the South School of Internet Governance, eLAC, higher education, and elsewhere. Dr. Cavalli has acted as a pioneer for women in technology and engineering since entering the male-dominated field, and is currently the President of the Women in Technology and Business Forum and the founder of the National Centre of Engineers' Women Engineers for Development Commission.

Pedro Mizukami

Researcher at the Center for Technology and Society

E-Mail: pedro.mizukami@fgv.br

Profile

Pedro N. Mizukami is a researcher at the Center for Technology and Society (CTS) at the Fundação Getulio Vargas Law School (FGV) in Rio de Janeiro, where he does research on IP enforcement, online piracy and copyright law. He holds a master's degree in constitutional law from the Pontifical Catholic University of São Paulo (2007) and a Bachelor of Laws from the same institution (2002). He is currently the research lead for the Brazilian component of the "Ecology of Access to Educational Materials in Developing Universities" project, a follow-up to the "Media Piracy in Emerging Economies" project, coordinated by the American Assembly at Columbia University.

Pranesh Prakash

Policy Director at Centre for Internet and Society & Access to Knowledge Fellow at the Yale Information Society Project

E-Mail: the.solipsist@gmail.com

Profile

Pranesh Prakash is a Postdoctoral Associate in Law and Access to Knowledge Fellow for the Information Society Project. He also served as the Policy Director for the Centre for Internet and Society, a Bangalore-based non-profit that engages in research and policy advocacy. He has an LL.M., National Law School of India University and a B.A., National Law School of India University.

Rafik Dammak

Profile

Rafik Dammak is young Tunisian working as computer engineer at Telecom operator and living in Tokyo. He holds a degree in Computer Engineering from Engineering school in Tunisia and Msc on applied computer science from Graduate School of Interdisciplinary Information Studies under Prof. Sakamura Ken supervision working on ubiquitous computing, at the University of Tokyo. He is a DiploFoundation alumnae after completion of the Internet Governance Capacity Building program. He is a former Creative Commons Tunisian license project Public co-leader. He has been involved in ICANN community as NCUC (Non-commercial users constituency) individual user member and currently an elected GNSO Councillor for the Non-Commercial Stakeholder Group and had experience on policy about domain names while he is involved on advocacy for Human Rights, privacy, freedom of expression. He is also in the program committee for Asia Pacific regional IGF and Japan IGF and attended several global IGF and the first summer school on Internet Governance, while he is working on improving awareness about Internet Governance in Tunisia and want to advocate for IoT as development tool and instrument for Africa and MENA and adapting concept like smart cities and smart grid to local context of developing countries and avoid a IoT digital divide.

Renato Leite

Researcher on Technology Law of the NUS Centre for Law & Business

E-Mail: renatoleite@nyu.edu

Profile

Renato is currently pursuing the NYU@NUS dual-degree LL.M., with a specialization in Intellectual Property & Technology Law. He is also Editor of the Singapore Law Review and a Researcher on Technology Law of the NUS Centre for Law & Business. Renato is interested in the current challenges faced by intellectual property rights and technology, mainly on issues raised by the entanglement between privacy and data protection over the Internet, such as flows of personal data, mass surveillance and trade secrets.

Stefaan Verhulst

Co-Founder and Chief Research and Development Officer of the Governance Laboratory @NYU

E-Mail: sverhulst@nyu.edu / stefaan@thegovlab.org

Twitter handle : @sverhulst and @thegovlab

Profile

Stefaan G. Verhulst is Co-Founder and Chief Research and Development Officer of the Governance Laboratory @NYU (GovLab) where he is responsible for building a research foundation on how to transform governance using advances in science and technology.

Silvio Meira

Chief Scientist, Recife Center for Advanced Studies and Systems & Chair, Software Engineering, Federal University of Pernambuco, Recife

E-Mail: silvio@meira.com

Twitter handle: @srlm

Facebook: srdlm

Blog: boletim.de/Silvio

Profile

Silvio Meira is a full professor and Chair of Software Engineering at Federal University of Pernambuco, Chief Scientist at the Recife Center for Advanced Studies and Systems (C.E.S.A.R); he is also director of the INES - National Institute of Science and Technology for Software Engineering. In the academic world, Silvio authored more than 200 papers in learned conferences and journals related to software engineering and was advisor of more than 150 Master and Ph.D. students at the University. He earned a Ph.D. in Computer Science from the University of Kent at Canterbury (1985) and his research areas include: service-oriented software development, software life cycle, software reuse, and social networks.

Tim Maurer

Research Fellow, New America Foundation

E-Mail: tim.maurer@post.harvard.edu

Profile

Tim Maurer is a Research Fellow at the New America Foundation's Open Technology Institute focusing on cyberspace and international affairs. His current projects center on the global cyber-security norm process, information technology in the context of sanctions and export controls, and swing states in the international Internet policy debate. In October 2013, he spoke about cyber-warfare at the United Nations and his research has been published by Harvard University, Foreign Policy, CNN, and Slate among others. His work has been featured by print, radio, and television media including NPR's Kojo Nnamdi Show, PRI's The World, Al Jazeera, the LA Times, the Russian Kommersant, and the German Die Zeit. Prior to joining New America, he worked at the Center for Strategic and International Studies where he continues to be a non-resident adjunct fellow. He also gained experience with the United Nations in Rwanda, Geneva, and New York focusing on humanitarian assistance and the coordination of the UN system. He conducts his academic research as a non-resident research fellow at the University of Toronto's Citizen Lab.

Dr. Towela Nyirenda Jere

Programmes Manager with the NEPAD e-Africa Programme

E-Mail: towelan@nepad.org

Profile

Dr. Jere has 20 years of experience spanning the academic, private and civil society sectors and is currently working with the e-Africa Programme at the NEPAD Agency (a technical agency of the African Union charged with facilitating and coordinating priority development programmes). The e-Africa Programme is the ICT task team of the Agency focusing on 4 key areas: ICT Broadband Infrastructure e-Skills & Capacity Development, e-Applications and Services and Enabling Environment, Governance and Partnerships.

In the realm of Internet Governance, Dr. Jere is a graduate of the inaugural ISOC Next Generation Leaders Programme; has completed several Internet Governance training programmes offered by the Diplo Foundation (Introductory and Advanced phases; Internet Governance Strategy, Policy and Research). She advocated for and obtained observer status for the NEPAD Agency to the ICANN GAC, helped to launch the Southern Africa Internet Governance Forum, contributed to launching the African School on Internet Governance and continues to advocate for increased awareness among African policy makers of the importance and significance of Internet Governance processes at national and continental level. She was appointed to serve on the IGF Multi-Stakeholder Advisory Group in 2014. Dr. Jere holds a PhD in Electrical Engineering (Networking and Telecommunications) from the University of Kansas, an ACCA Diploma in Financial Management and is a qualified Project Management Professional (PMP) with the Project Management Institute (USA). She is currently pursuing a Master of Arts in Contemporary Diplomacy (specialisation in Internet Governance) with the University of Malta.

Urs Gasser

Executive Director, Berkman Center for Internet and Society

E-Mail: ugasser@cyber.law.harvard.edu

Profile

Urs Gasser is the Executive Director of the Berkman Center for Internet & Society at Harvard University and a Professor of Practice at Harvard Law School. He serves as a trustee on the board of the NEXA Center for Internet & Society at the University of Torino and on the board of the Research Center for Information Law at the University of St. Gallen, and is a member of the International Advisory Board of the Alexander von Humboldt Institute for Internet and Society in Berlin. He is a Fellow at the Gruter Institute for Law and Behavioral Research.

Vera Franz

Profile

Vera Franz heads the Information Policy and Intellectual Property Reform initiatives at the Open Society Information Program. She has been deeply involved in the launch and development of the global access to knowledge (A2K) movement, and is also working to strengthen civil society advocating for the protection of human rights online. Most recently, she has launched an initiative on genetic information and open society.

During her early years at the Foundations, she taught a course on media, technology, and globalization at the Department of Communications at Salzburg University, Austria. She has written a chapter in Access to Knowledge in the Age of Intellectual Property edited by Gaelle Krikorian and Amy Kapczynski, published by Zone Books/MIT Press in 2010. She is Member of the Advisory Board of Ariadne, the European network of human rights funders.

William Drake

International Fellow and Lecturer in the Media Change and Innovation Division

E-mail: william.drake@uzh.ch

Twitter handle: @wjdrake

Web: www.williamdrake.org [full bio and publications]

Profile

William J. Drake is an International Fellow and Lecturer in the Media Change and Innovation Division of the Institute of Mass Communication and Media Research at the University of Zurich, where he teaches courses on Global Internet Governance, The Changing NetWorld Order, The Internet and World Politics, and the Internet and Social Change. He is also the elected Chairperson of Noncommercial Users Constituency and an elected member of the Board of Directors of the European At Large Organization in the Internet Corporation for Assigned Names and Numbers (ICANN); a member of the Multistakeholder Advisory Group of the UN's Internet Governance Forum; a member of the multistakeholder 1Net Steering Committee; an advisor to the high-level Panel on Global Internet Cooperation and Governance Mechanisms; a faculty member of the European, African and South Schools on Internet Governance; and an Affiliated Researcher at the Institute for Tele-Information at Columbia University. Drake received his M.A., M.Phil, and Ph.D. in Political Science from Columbia University. Some of his more recent publications include, Editor, Internet Governance: Creating Opportunities for All---The Fourth Internet Governance Forum (United Nations, 2010); Co-Editor, Governing Global Electronic Networks: International Perspectives on Policy and Power (MIT Press, 2008).

Wolfgang Schulz

Director at the Humboldt Institute for Internet and Society

E-Mail: w.schulz@hans-bredow-institut.de

Profile

Prof. Dr. Wolfgang Schulz studied Law and Journalism in Hamburg. Since 1997 he has taught the optional special subject on information and communication in the Department of Law at the University of Hamburg; he has been also a member of the state office for legal examinations since January 2000. In July 2009 habilitation through the Faculty of Law at the University of Hamburg, granted Venia Legendi in public law, media law and legal philosophy. Since November 2011 W. Schulz has the university professorship "Media Law and Public Law including Theoretical Foundations" at the Faculty of Law at the University of Hamburg. In February 2012 he was also appointed director at the Humboldt Institute for Internet and Society in Berlin.

Dr. Yi Shen

Associate Professor

Department of International Politics, School Of International Relations and Public Affairs, Vice Director of The Center For BRICS Studies, Vice Director of The Center For Media Revolution and Governance

E-Mail: sheny@fudan.edu.cn / shenyifudan@gmail.com

Twitter handle: @gfdii2004

Facebook: www.facebook.com/shenyifudan

Profile

Yi Shen is an associate professor in the Department of International Politics at Fudan University in Shanghai. He heads the university's newly established Center for Media Revolution and Governance and also conducts research on cyber-related issues. Since 2009, Yi has focused on the interaction between information technology and diplomacy with an emphasis on the latest developments in Iran, Tunisia, Egypt, China, Libya and other countries. Yi has published his first book named The National Cybersecurity Strategy of the United States, and also written numerous short commentary pieces for newspapers, including The Global Times and Wen Hui. He has also published several academic papers analyzing America's cyber space strategy. Yi holds a PhD in international politics from Fudan University.

Young Jun Park

Professor at SUNY (State University of New York) Korea

E-Mail: yjpark21@gmail.com

DIREITO RIO
DIREITO SP