

The Law and Policy of Trade in Services

ECTS: 3

KSL Root Number: 446641

The course addresses the law, economics and policy of services trade, explores negotiating challenges in selected sectors and addresses key political economy challenges arising from services rule-making and market opening, including in preferential settings. It describes the legal architecture of agreements governing services trade and distils key lessons from evolving jurisprudence.